Monday 01/20, 12:00pm to 4:00pm Martin Luther King Jr. Peace Day

The Curiosity Place is the place to be on Martin Luther King Day. Let's explore and celebrate Peace together! Kids can drop in and interact with hands-on peace stations. Activities are self-guided and will include STEM experiments, crafts, and a Peace Path to walk. Our focus on peace will be available throughout the day and is included with admission to the museum. Walk-ins are accepted.

No special registration is needed and there is no cost to this program. Just book your admission like usual and participate if you want to!
